

ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE

The water holding capacity of meat is improved by agitating the meat at an elevated temperature with the processing solution and by maintaining the elevated temperature with precision. A preferred temperature is in the range of 45° to 60°F and the agitation is preferably a massaging action after injection of the liquid into the meat.